Dear Member:

Château Ducru-Beaucaillou is one of the greatest properties in Bordeaux. The wine holds Second Growth (Deuxième Cru) status from the 1855 classification of wines of the Médoc and Graves regions of Bordeaux. Ducru has been owned by the Borie family for over 60 years. One of the gems of the Saint-Julien appellation, Ducru is consistently rated among the best wines of the vintage. With this in mind, The Wine and Food Society of New York has long cellared bottles of Ducru for future tastings and dinners. On Thursday, May 4, we will hold a sit-down vertical tasting of ten vintages of Château Ducru-Beaucaillou at The Union League Club. Included are their highly rated wines from the classic 1982 and 1995 vintages, as well as their excellent wines from the 1983, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1996, 1998 and 1999 vintages.

Board member and wine importer Robert Shack will lead the tasting for our group. Bob recently met with Bruno Borie in Bordeaux, and Bruno is trying to clear his schedule to attend our tasting. We are hopeful that he can attend this important event. We have been eagerly anticipating this tasting all year and are very pleased it is now coming together. We are limited to just 60 members and guests, so please make your reservations early.

Sincerely,

Ivan Thornton
