Dear Member:

Many consider Per Se to be the best restaurant in New York. One reviewer stated, "The food is beautifully conceived, elegantly presented and as varied as the colors of the rainbow." It is certainly the most difficult restaurant reservation to obtain. We have the unique opportunity to combine dinner at this great restaurant with one of our wonderful BYOBs.

We will start with a champagne reception and a selection of delicious hors d'oeuvres (tentatively including Chef Keller's famous smoked salmon cornets; red wine braised short ribs; celery root "purée" and whole grain mustard sauce; creamy lobster broth; and Yukon potato and black truffle "beignet" with white truffle "aioli"). We will move on to a fabulous five-course dinner, including a fish course, vegetarian/fish course, meat course, cheese course, sorbet interlude, complex dessert, coffee and mignardises.

We ask that each attendee bring a minimum of one bottle of white or red Burgundy of either premier cru or grand cru quality. The red Burgundy should be 1996 or older. We will also accept other wines of similar high quality such as premium American chardonnay or pinot noir, but we prefer you bring Burgundy, especially red Burgundy. Those who would like to attend but cannot offer a bottle of the above wines should contact Ira Greene at (212) 918-3008 for help in finding a wine offering.

Please make your reservation listing your wine offering and possible alternatives as soon as possible. The logistics of organizing the wine selections and seating is a complicated undertaking. It will help greatly if you reserve early.

If you are bringing a red wine, we ask that you bring your wine to the restaurant the evening of the dinner. If you are bringing a white wine, so that it may be properly chilled, you may deliver the wine to the restaurant between January 13 and January 15, 2006, during the periods 11:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. or 5:30 p.m. – 11:00 p.m. The following information must be stated on the package – "Per Se, Attention: Celia Laurent – Wine and Food Society Dinner – January 16, 2006". Please also print your name clearly on the bottle.

We would like to thank chairpersons Arthur Canario and Larry Ossias for their help with this dinner. Please join us for this great event.

Sincerely,

Ivan Thornton
