

Kee's Chocolate Tasting and Chocolate Making Demonstration - with Champagne, Banyuls, Zinfandel and Vintage Port

Dear Member,

Do you like great chocolate? Kee's Chocolates has received a Zagat rating of 29 out of 30 for the last six years.

Join us for a tasting of these exquisite chocolates and a chocolate making demonstration by its owner, Kee Ling Tong. Kee's rich handmade chocolates come in a variety of traditional and unusual flavors. Examples include dark chocolate truffles with fresh blood orange infused with cream and Grand Marnier; superb dark chocolate truffles coated with black and white sesame seeds; milk/dark chocolate ganache filled with fresh squeezed Key Lime juice; dark chocolate saffron with a taste of honey; dark chocolate truffle infused with French Mirabelle plums and a hint of sea salt; white chocolate ganache with fresh Yuzu; dark chocolate truffle with black tea infused with rose petals; dark and white chocolate combined with lemon and basil; dark chocolate bonbon filled with Creme Brulee; and dark chocolate ganache infused with mint and topped with whipped cream.

To accompany Kee's chocolates, we will be serving Champagne, Zinfandel, Banyuls and 1985 Vintage Port from our cellar.

The event will be held in the beautiful Sub-Zero Showroom in the Architects & Designers Building on East 58th Street. This should be a fun educational event. Kee has appeared many times on US and foreign television including appearances on the Food Network, PBS and Lifetime for Real Women as well as being featured in several publications including the Gourmet, the Financial Times, New York Magazine, the New York Times Magazine, Town & Country, Chocolatier and Esquire (Japan).

Come enjoy the flavors and find out that some wines do, indeed, go with chocolate. To make reservations please go to www.wfsny.org.

Very truly yours,

Chris Ankner
