

Federico Ceretto at Piano Due

January 8, 2006

Dear Member:

On January 29, the magnetic Federico Ceretto of the distinguished Ceretto wine making family will be our guest as we taste the wonderful Ceretto wines from Piedmont and enjoy a delicious dinner at Piano Due.

The Ceretto Family has been making highly regarded wines for three generations. We will be drinking some prized limited production wines. These include Ceretto's 1999 Barolo Bricco Rocche, 2001 Brunello Prapo and 2000 Barbaresco Bricco Asili. These limited production wines are rich and full bodied with wonderful bouquets.

Piano Due is the uptown branch of the highly regarded Scalini Fedeli restaurant. After a reception in the beautiful Palio Bar, we will be seated at one long table in the restaurant's private dining room. The menu includes a delicious Branzino alla Siciliana (seared wild striped bass in a Sicilian broth with tomato fennel confit and shrimp), a rich critically acclaimed Pappardella alla Cacciatora (pappardelle in an exotic sauce of wild game, finished with cream and barolo wine), Vitello alla Zingara (medallions of veal in a rich stew of wild mushrooms, pepperoncini and black olives served over faro) and a duo of the Chef's special desserts.

This special dinner is limited to 36 attendees. Please make your reservations as soon as possible.

Special thanks to Chairman Mark Neuberger and Michael Cinque for their assistance in making this event possible.

Sincerely,

Ivan Thornton
