

STAURT RANDALL BURGUNDY TASTING

Dear Member,

On May 7, please join Stuart Randall and The Wine and Food Society for a tasting of Burgundies from the 2005 and 2006 vintage. Stuart, when not serving on our wine committee, is a wine importer and founding partner of Bayfield Importing, Ltd. He teaches the Burgundy classes for The Sommelier Society of America. For the Society, he has assembled a Burgundy tasting that will show the breadth of the wines of the entire region.

2005 was one of the greatest years in recent memory for red burgundies and a stellar year for the whites. 2006, while not as big as 2005, is proving to be a very good “drinking” vintage for both whites and reds. In this letter I am not going to repeat the praises of the most noted wine critics of the two vintages, but will urge you to try them for yourself at our tasting.

The wines we will taste include the following, along with others:

Meursault 1er Genevrieres, Latour-Giraud 2006
Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Caillerets, Pillot 2006
Chambolle-Musigny 1er Les Fuees, Sigaut 2006
Clos Vougeot, Hudelot-Noellat 2006
Bonnes-Mares, Domaine St. Martin 2005

Burgundy tastings are always popular events. Please reserve your place early at www.wfsny.org. I hope to see you there.

Sincerely,
